"We changed over to the BookNet Web service for all our ordering last December and we have seen a marked reduction in workload – gone are the faxed order forms and lever arch files to hold the same. The whole BookNet process is much neater, efficient and cost effective."

Diarmuid Byrne, bookseller at Greene's School & Library Suppliers, Ireland

BookNet Web for Booksellers

"With the electronic facilities now available via the Internet, there is no reason for any bookseller to continue to send orders in any other way. BookNet Web's unique order routing facility enables booksellers to consolidate all of their orders in one file, resulting in huge savings for customers."

Micheline Jebb, Commercial Director, Macmillan Distribution (MDL)

Distributors and Wholesalers prefer to receive your orders electronically.

Do I need extra software?

Setting up BookNet Web could not be easier – all you need is an Internet connection. BookNet Web can also integrate with your existing EPOS system, bringing further savings in time and cost.

Did you know...?

Sending orders manually to multiple suppliers is inefficient and costly. BookNet Web's TeleOrdering allows us to route orders directly to over 60,000 suppliers worldwide.
